

Homeschool News

A quarterly newsletter from the Cape May County Library

WELCOME, SPRING!

Spring is in the air and the Cape May County Library Kids' Department is offering an abundance of children's programs that celebrate Spring, reading and books, and being creative. Join us in March and April for Chess, St. Patrick's Day Treats, Cookies and Coloring, Squishy Circuits, Earth Day Art, Book Tasting, and so much more!

Don't miss out on the latest library news - visit kids.cmclibrary.org, or follow us on Instagram @cmclibrary & on our Cape May County Library Kids Facebook page.

HOMESCHOOL SCIENCE FAIR

Homeschoolers ages 4-17 are invited to participate in the Cape May County Library's Homeschool Science Fair. Think of a research project or science experiment that excites your interests, do research and present your findings at the Cape May Court House Library on Thursday 11th.

WRITE NIGHT!

Mark your calendars for Monday, March 25th! Join us at the Cape May County Library at 5pm for a program that specifically focuses on the process of writing. Children will learn how to write a small moments story and have guidance on the writing process.

FEATURED RESOURCE: NOVELIST K-8

NoveList K-8 Plus is aimed at helping younger readers find fiction and nonfiction they want to read - whether in a education or in home setting. Search by theme, topic, series, and more and enjoy reviews from sources like School Library Journal and Booklist!

Try Novelist and our other resources today at: cmclibrary.org/help/research/ChildrensResources.

A CMC Library card is needed to use this service.

DAN SANTAT AUTHOR VISIT!

Please join us on Monday, May 20th at 6pm at the Sea Isle City Library when author Dan Santat will be visiting! We are very excited to welcome Dan and hear him talk about his journey as a writer! We look forward to seeing you at this amazing event! Please contact the Children's Department for further details or visit:
