A quarterly newsletter from the Cape May County Library

WELCOME!

The Children's Librarians are all very happy the library is open to the public for walkthrough services once again! We have missed our library friends. Although we cannot have in-person programs at the moment, we are providing numerous virtual programs and online reading challenges, as well as take-home craft kits available at each library branch. Don't miss out on our latest news, and follow us on our brand-new CMCL Kids Facebook page!

GREG PIZZOLI VISITS!

CMCL Kids is excited to host a virtual author visit with one of our favorite picture book authors and illustrators, Mr. Greg Pizzoli! Greg will be talking about the book-writing process, reading aloud from his books, and performing a drawing demonstration! There will also be a brief Q & A session. Registration is required and spaces are filling up fast! The event takes place on Wednesday, March 24th at 10am. Register today at: events.cmclibrary.org/event/4883152

JOIN THE SPRING CHALLENGE!

CMCL is offering a new seasonal online reading challenge! From March 15 to April 16, you can earn points by logging your minutes spent reading, completing activities, and by submitting written or picture reviews of the books you've read! All the points you earn will be entered into a prize drawing for a tote bag filled with books and library swag. Register at cmclibrary.beanstack.org today!

COMING THIS SPRING

JOSH FUNK VISITS!

Save the date! Author and Illustrator Josh Funk will be holding a virtual author visit on Saturday, May 1st at 11am!

FEATURED RESOURCE: CULTUREGRAMS

Want to learn about the countries of the world? CultureGrams is a great database, available to CMCL library card holders! Learn about each country's history, language, celebration days, and much more! Perfect for research, or just to sate the inquisitive mind! Find it at cmclibrary.org/help/research/ChildrensResources.
